

Getting Ready For Water Heater Control

Water heater controls are to be installed outside only.

Use PVC or bakelite box without threaded hubs only.

If member wires this himself, signed affidavit from electrician or state inspector must be furnished before control is installed by Freeborn-Mower Electric Cooperative.

Adequate side clearances, top clearances, and height from ground line must be followed, or control will not be installed.

