FREEBORN-MOWER COOPERATIVE SERVICES AWARDS THREE $1,000 LINeworkER SCHOLARSHIPS

FREEBORN-MOWER COOPERATIVE SERVICES (FMCS) recently awarded scholarships to three area students enrolled in the Powerline / Electric Utility Program at Minnesota West Community & Technical College in Jackson, MN.

Zach Nelson, son of David and Sandy Nelson, Glenville, Jake Schmit, son of Tracy and Heather Schmit, Austin and Isaac Noterman, son of Dan & Karen Noterman, Adams have each been awarded a Lineworker Scholarship in the amount of $1,000.

FMCS offers Lineworker Scholarships in an effort to address the anticipated nationwide shortage of electric line workers within the decade. "It is our hope that this program will help prepare a future work force for Minnesota's electric cooperatives", stated Jim Krueger, President & CEO.

Scholarships are funded from unclaimed Capital Credits in accordance with state statute. Providing scholarships represent just one of the many ways that FMCS strives to benefit the people of our service area.

FMCS President and CEO Jim Krueger presents $1,000 Lineworker Scholarship.
